The RM Club Privacy Notice

When you join the Club you give us certain information voluntarily. You provide us with your name, address, email address, phone number and details about your RM vehicle(s). The Club collects this information to enable you to benefit from its services. These include events, spares, magazines, merchandise, historic data, Club links to social media and the Club Forum. If you buy something from us, we collect payment information and the details of what you have bought. No data is passed onto third parties or for marketing, other than those involved in the services mentioned. These have their own privacy policies. Your data is only made available to the Club's officers. Where members have given consent, contact details can be viewed by other Club members through a regularly updated membership list and map. The full privacy policy can be viewed on the Club's website or contact gensec@rileymclub.org.uk. It explains fully how the Club collects, handles and processes your personal data.
